

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 15, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 1746 - HB 1761

This bill, if enacted, will provide when the defendant or the state appeals a criminal sentence, there will no longer be a de novo review on the record by the appellate court but the state or defendant will have to prove trial court abused its discretion in imposing sentence to merit relief.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be minimal.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director